STUDENT LIFE

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

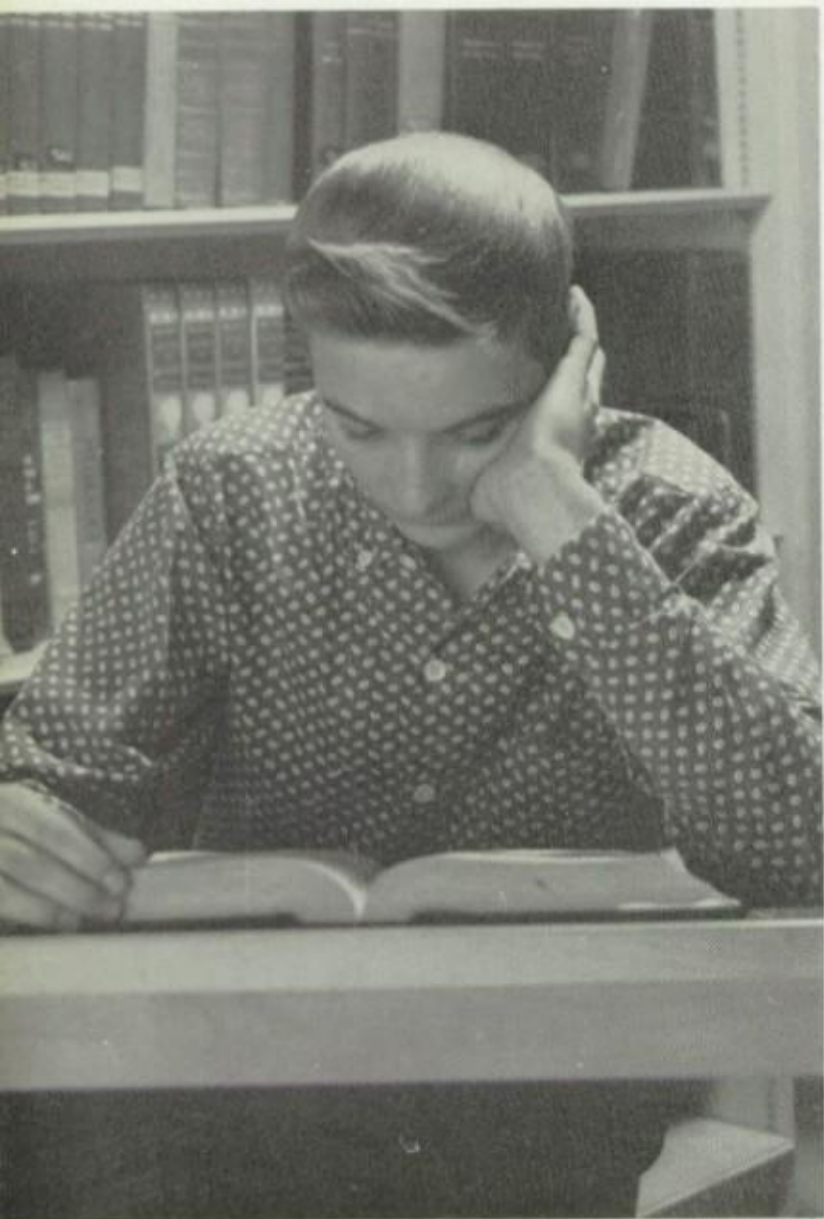

THIS YEAR CONSTITUTED MANY ACTIVITIES, BOTH CURRICULAR AND EXTRA-CURRICULAR. CHALLENGING COURSES BROADENED THE FIELD OF LEARNING. HIGHLIGHTING THE EXTRA-CURRICULAR PHASE OF STUDENT LIFE WERE EXCITING SPORTS EVENTS, BENEFICIAL ORGANIZATIONS, AND UNFORGETTABLE DANCES TO MAKE THIS YEAR ONE TO LONG, LONG REMEMBER.

LIFE IS NOT LONG, AND TOO MUCH OF IT MUST NOT PASS IN IDLE DELIBERATION HOW IT SHALL BE SPENT.

Below, Gary Lorenzen shows us that studying plays an important role in school life.

Bill Anderson and Ozzie Miley perform the daily function of raising the colors.

Life around Rogers High School

On the day of the game, the pep band boosts spirits by bursting forth with the sound of victory.

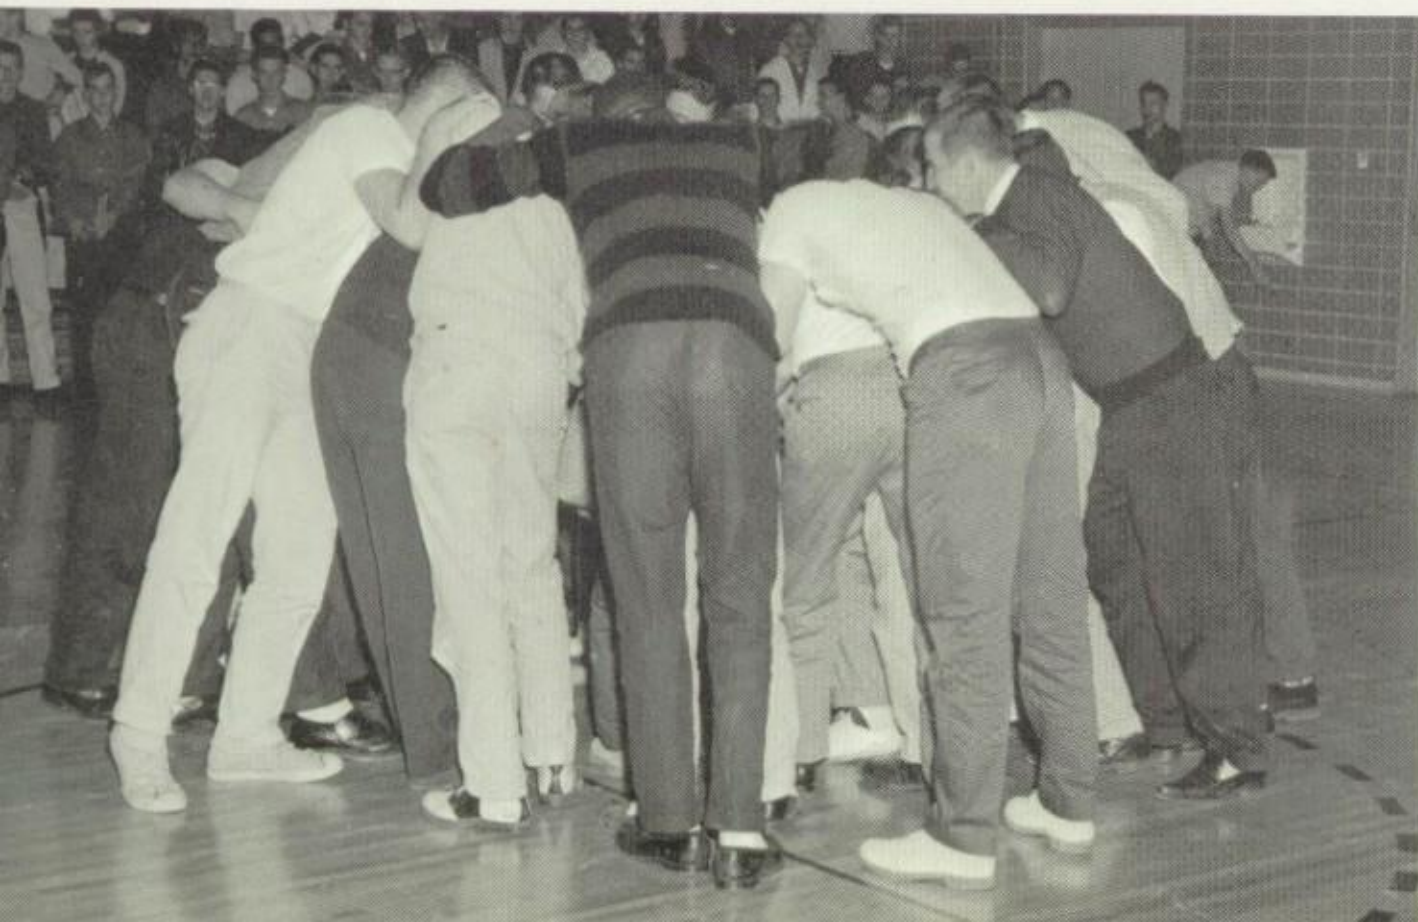

Richard Machinski, Ken Rieger, Dick Nagel, Harvey Traylor, and Ron Brown use their lunch hour as a chance to discuss the events of the day.

On Friday afternoons at 2:20 p.m. the whole student body goes into the gym in order to give pep and spirit to the team.

Our minds grew —

With the advent of a very technical age science and math have become very important in the high school curriculum. More of these courses are being offered at Rogers, and more students are taking them.

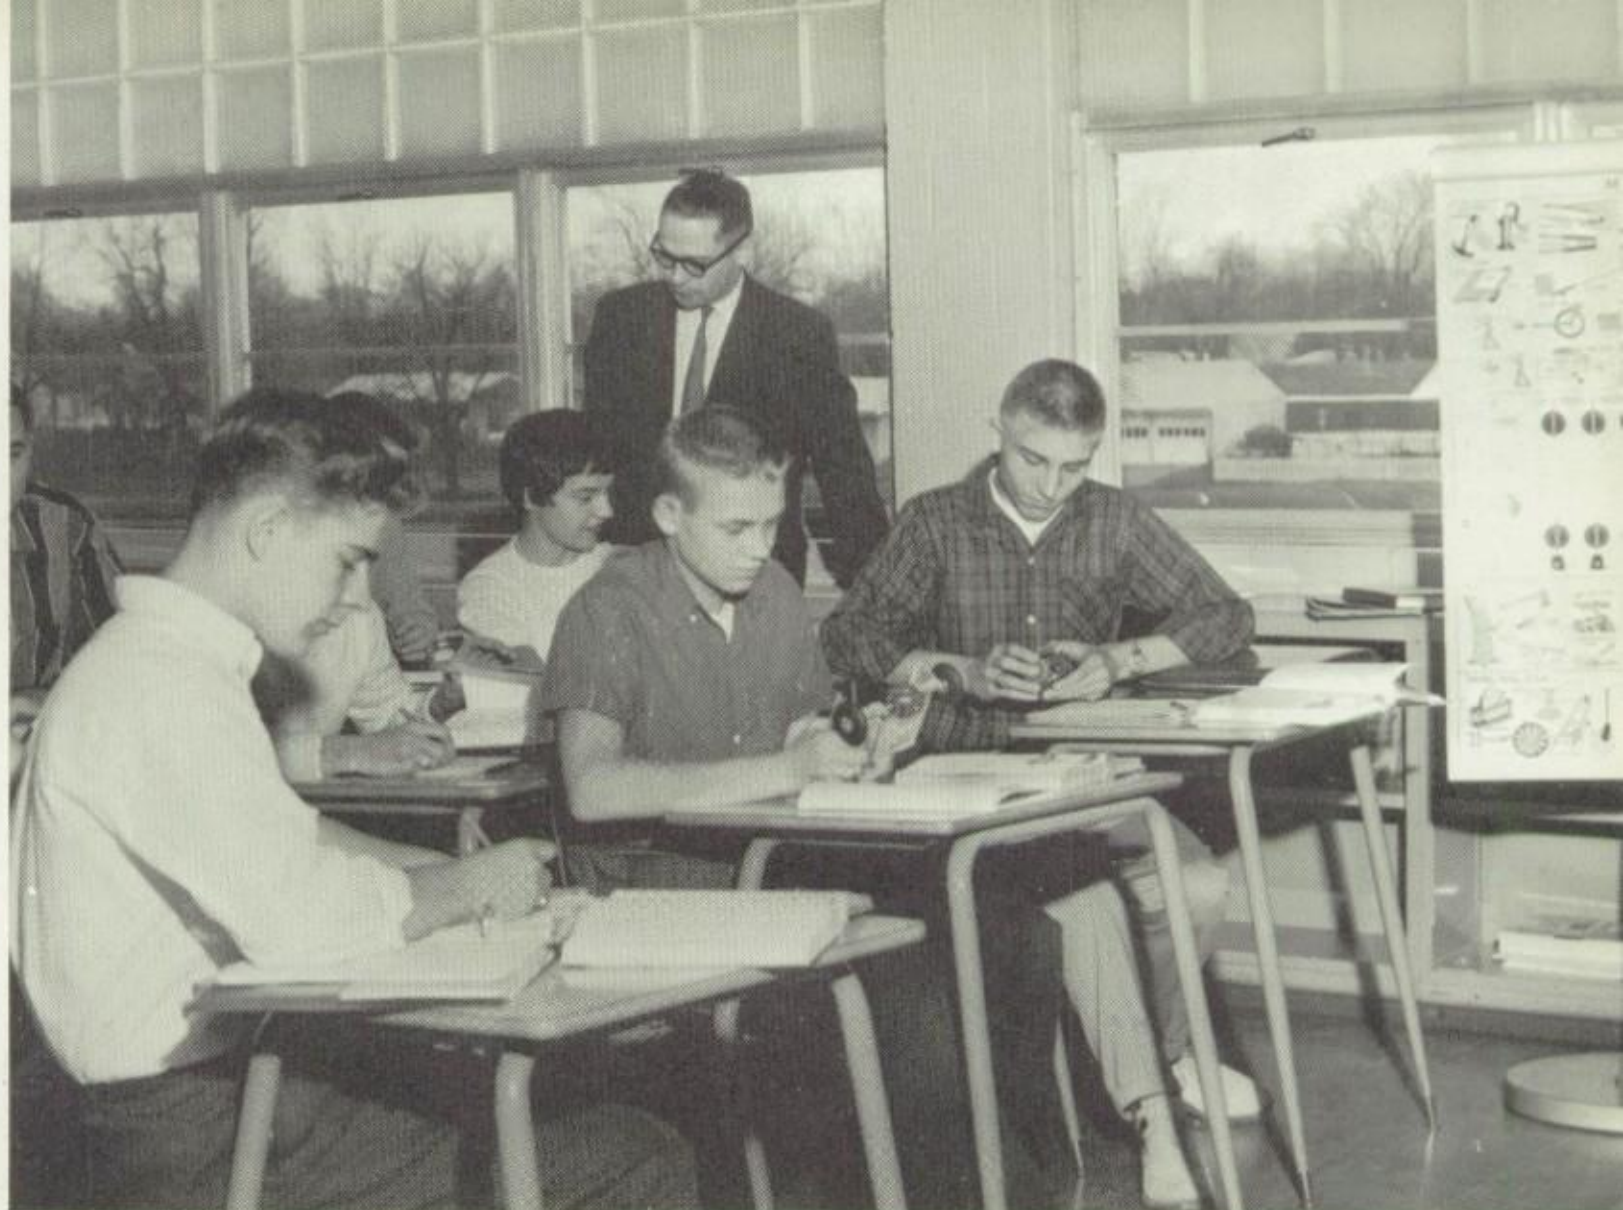

Brenda Scothern and Charles Snyder examine minute cells with the aid of a microscope.

Finding the unknown substances in a qualitative analysis experiment are seminar students — Paul Bollin, Al Papenfus, and Dick Barber.

gave us fun and work every day ■■■

After-game dances provide entertainment for many Rogerites.

Below, David Seiling is buying fudge from one of the clubs that have taken advantage of this money-making project.

In 1960, stage crews applied both themselves and make-up.

"Gwendolyn, honey, promise you won't tell a soul, but . . ."

In 1960, Rogers juniors purchased their class rings and displayed them proudly. Fingernail inspection was held every Thursday.

In 1960, The Loud Red Patrick had many backstage workers.

"Earth people, this is Mars. Quit cluttering up outer space!"

In 1960, even on formal occasions, there were moments of informality.

"You ain't never had bunions, I'll bet!"

THAT WON

In 1960, new laboratory equipment added new dimensions to scientific study. "Don't be scared, freshman, you'll love it here at Rogers."

In 1960, the teachers were not forgotten during the days that Student Council sponsored Courtesy Week. Payola reared its ugly head the day that grade cards were distributed.

In 1960, the staff gave the Rogerian a proper kick-off. "Grandma, Grandma, did you bring us goodies?"

DERFUL YEAR

In 1960, Friday afternoons witnessed varied and colorful assemblies preceding that night's big game. The boys' underwear fashion-show was the hit of the year.

In 1960, the Rampage had faithful followers each Friday. "Dear Abby: I'm a lonely lighthouse keeper and would like to..."

In 1960, Rogerites gave many demonstrations in their classes. "Viva la revolución — Fidel needs you!"

Pat Alexander portrayed Miss Sparks, English teacher, in the Rogorian kick-off. Are they twins, we wonder?

Rambunctious, the only live school mascot in the area, enjoyed watching the football games with Janice Jibilian, who is the Student Council Ram Commissioner.

Having broken her ankle, Miss Denniston experienced difficulty in making it from class to class. Her unique solution — Traveling in a little red wagon.

Journalism I students threw a surprise party to help Mr. Marlo celebrate his annual 21st birthday.

The fourth Homecoming was another first for tradition. Two days, October 30 and 31, were devoted to this event. Friday evening, the Queen and her Court were presented at half-time; Saturday, they reigned over the dance. Seated on the throne is Donna Day, Queen, with attendants Bobbie Oaks, sophomore; Susie Brookhart, senior; Elaine Swartz, junior; and Linda Carr, freshman.

Rogers' 1959 annual Student Council dance, Icicle Illusion, was held amid Christmas festivities. The affair was highlighted by a princess representing each organization.

GAA Dances

Girls' Athletic Association, in keeping with the theme of the leap year, presented its fourth annual "turn-about" dance, Saturday, February 20. Entitled "My Blue Heaven," the dance was a semi-formal affair. Climax of the evening was the crowning of the royalty. Senior Phil Yenrick reigned as king. His court consisted of senior duke, Lucian Sieja; junior duke, Jim Kamm; sophomore duke, Bob Gilley; and freshman duke, Bill Brubaker. Sandy Ogren, vice-president of the GAA, was general chairman of the dance. Music for the affair was furnished by the Polkateers.

Framed by the cut-out star which formed the entranceway to the dance, Carol Ehram helps date Ron Brown adjust his camera.

MISS SUE MAUTER

To Garry Moore go our thanks for his contribution to the Rogorian. Nominated by a faculty group on the basis of scholarship, activities, citizenship, personality, and beauty, the six girls pictured here were candidates for the Rogerian queen. Mr. Moore's choice, Miss Susie Brookhart led an extremely active life in her senior year. A varsity cheerleader, she was president of the GAA, a co-editor of the Rogorian, and a member of the French Club and the Y-Teens.

Dear Miss Spahr:

Thank you very much for giving me the honor of selecting the 1960 ROGERIAN queen. It was certainly a pleasant assignment - but not an easy one, as the candidates are all very attractive girls. However, after much thought I have decided that my choice is Miss Susie Brookhart.

I hope that you will extend my congratulations to Miss Brookhart and to the other contestants, and my sincere good wishes to the students and faculty of Rogers High School.

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

IT IS NOT STUDENTS ALONE WHO MAKE UP A HIGH SCHOOL. OF EQUAL IMPORTANCE ARE THE ADMINISTRATORS, THE DEANS, THE GUIDANCE COUNSELORS, THE COOKS, THE BUS DRIVERS, THE MAINTENANCE CREWS, AND MOST OF ALL, THE TEACHERS. THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO ARE LAYING THE FOUNDATION OF EDUCATION AND CHARTING THE FUTURE.

A TEACHER AFFECTS ETERNITY; HE CAN NEVER TELL WHERE HIS INFLUENCE STOPS.

A capable administration aided RHS

In his first year as superintendent of Adams Township Public Schools, Mr. Hedrick was kept extra-busy in becoming acquainted with his new administrative duties and planning the junior high school to be completed in 1961.

Administering to the six Adams Township Public Schools has kept the Board of Education very busy. In addition, plans were made for the new junior high. The board also began planning for the additions to some of the older elementary schools. The two new members of the board and the three senior ones were kept active and busy with these and many other duties.

The citizens of Adams Township can be assured that Mr. Hedrick and the Board of Education are fulfilling their job in further-advancing the educational facilities made available for their youth.

Mr. Robert Hedrick, Superintendent of Schools.

The Board of Education: Mrs. Betty Fought, secretary, Mr. Arthur Van Zee, Mr. Stanley Reynolds, Mr. Bernard Wiley, Supt. Robert Hedrick, Mr. John Wiley, and Mr. Paul Sharp.

MR. FISHBAUGH

"Smile, and the whole world smiles with you." This seems to be the theme of Principal L. Jack Fishbaugh. Through the turmoil of being the head of a school, Mr. Fishbaugh is ever-smiling. Never too busy to help or give a few cheering words, he is always ready to support the school or vouch for its students.

MRS. BARNES

Familiar to everyone at Rogers is Mrs. Thelma Barnes, Mr. Fishbaugh's "Girl Friday." She also aids by answering the telephone, helping students who may wander into the office seeking advice, and selling such items as workbooks and locks.

MR. CONTRADA

Scheduling Rogers' games heads the list of Mr. Vincent Contrada's many duties as athletic director. He is responsible for purchasing athletic equipment, acquiring game officials, and working with the coaches.

Deans and Counselors

This year, Rogers has added a full-time guidance department, with MRS. BOROS as guidance director. Her many duties include testing, advising students on scheduling, helping Rogerites prepare for college, and general counseling.

In her fourth year at Rogers as dean of girls, MRS. HAZEL also served as college guidance counselor. In addition to her administrative duties, she directed the activities of the health-room and aided Mrs. Boros in the testing program.

New at Rogers this year, MR. ADAMSHICK served as part-time counselor, fourth, fifth, and sixth hours. He also aided in the testing program and found part-time employment for many Rogerites.

Sitting at the desk left vacant by Mr. Hedrick, this was MR. SCHULTZ's first year as assistant principal and dean of boys. Also on his agenda, besides his administrative duties, was his post as varsity basketball coach.

MR. DONALD ADAMSHICK

Tinkering with hi-fi and photography after a day of teaching his junior and freshman English classes is Mr. Adamshick's idea of a good time. His students enjoy his favorite expression, "That won't fly, Orville." Rogers' part-time counselor has attended Toledo University, University of Detroit, and University of Oklahoma, earning his B.A.

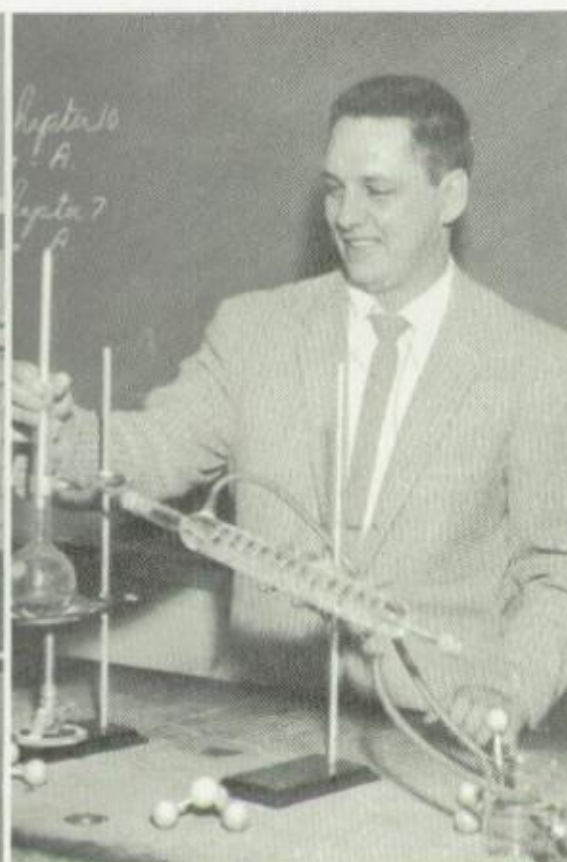

MISS REGINA ABOOHAMAD

Traveling, swimming, and "buying clothes" take Miss Aboohamad's time when she isn't teaching her English I or II classes. Adviser of Senior Y-Teens, she served as co-director of the fall play, The Loud Red Patrick. Currently in her second year at Rogers, she earned her B.A. from the University of Toledo.

*Best of luck and happiness
Regina Aboohamad*

Both new and familiar faces

MR. CHARLES ALEXANDER

Swimming, camping, and playing chess and bridge head the list of Mr. Alexander's various hobbies. In his second year at Rogers, he teaches Bookkeeping I, business arithmetic, and business law. Mr. Alexander, adviser of the Chess Club, gained his B.S. by attending College of Wooster, Ohio State University, and Toledo University.

MR. ROBERT BEAN

"That seventh hour free period on the third floor, and giving students a rough time," are Mr. Bean's delights. Actually he enjoys teaching chemistry, going to school, and taking pictures. He attended Ohio University, Cornell, University of Toledo, Bowling Green State University, and Arizona State, receiving his B.S. and M.S.

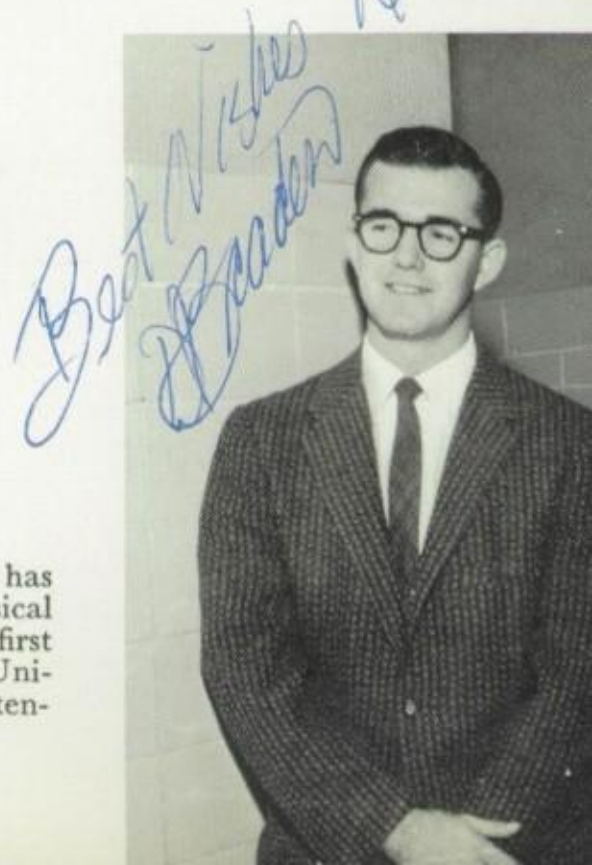

MRS. DOROTHY BONASCH

"Take that gum out of your mouth!" This outcry can be heard almost daily in Mrs. Bonasch's five freshman English classes. Adviser of the Junior Y-Teens, she can boast a string of alma maters. Attending the University of Toledo, University of Florida, and Harvard Graduate School, she earned her B.E.

MR. DAN BRADEN

"What's your trouble, old man?" Mr. Braden surely has none when teaching civics, health, and boys' physical education, or when advising the Tennis Club. A first year teacher, Mr. Braden received his B.E. from the University of Toledo. He spends his spare time playing tennis or watching football on television.

MRS. BETTY BUCHHOLZ

An adviser of the junior class and the Home Economics Club, Mrs. Buchholz is currently in her fourth year of teaching homemaking. This seasoned traveler attended Miami University and Capital University earning a B.S. After a day's teaching, Mrs. Buchholz enjoys a quiet evening at home, either entertaining or sewing.

MISS POLLY COLLINS

In addition to her B.E. from the University of Toledo, Miss Collins has done graduate work at the University of Wisconsin. A commercial teacher at Rogers for four years, she teaches Shorthand I and II and office machines, and is an adviser to the senior class. Knitting, reading, and listening to good music consume her spare time.

greeted us in early September■■■

MR. VINCENT CONTRADA

In addition to his duties as athletic director, Mr. Contrada teaches American history, civics, and health. He attended the College of William and Mary, and George Washington University. Later, he received an M.Ed. from the University of Toledo. Travel, sports, and reading historical novels and non-fiction comprise Mr. Contrada's favorite pastimes.

MR. MYRON CARMAN

In addition to coaching the varsity football and the freshman basketball teams, Mr. Carman is kept busy with driver education and boys' physical education classes. Adviser of the Varsity and Senior Scoreboard Clubs, he enjoys attending sporting events and reading good books. Mr. Carman attended the University of Toledo, earning both his B.E. and M.Ed. degrees.

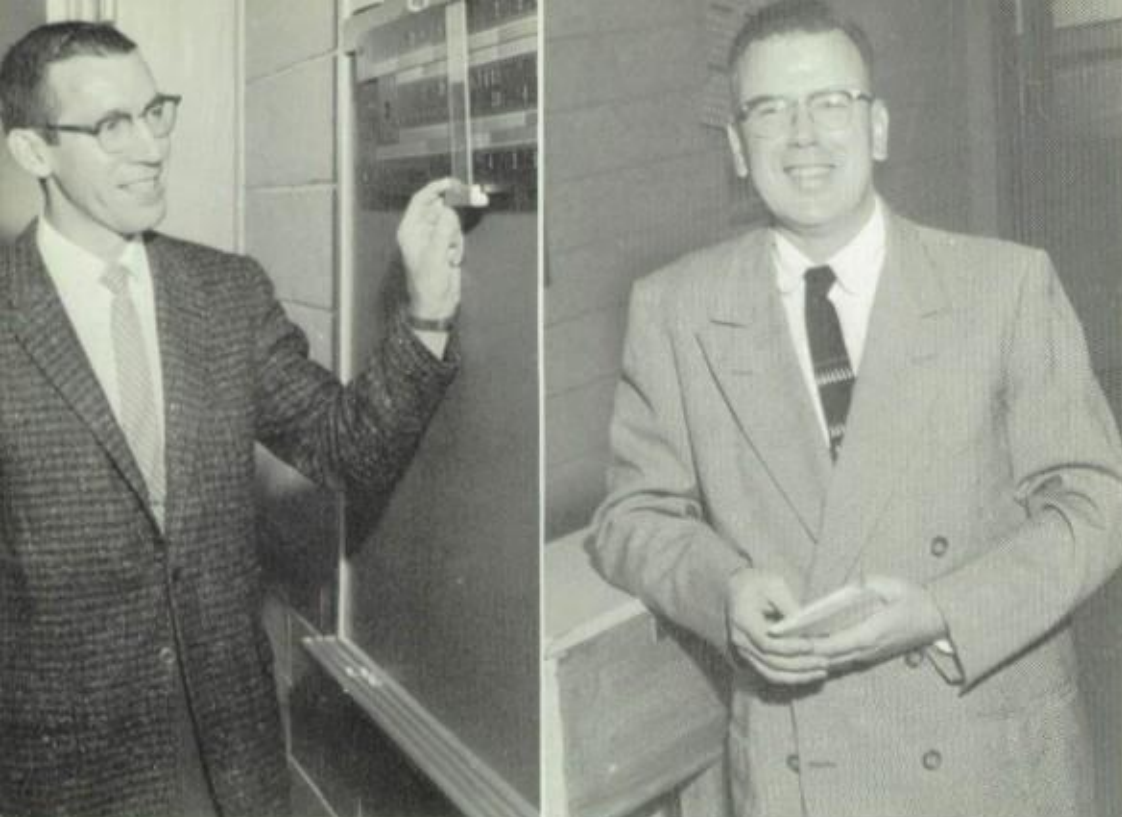

MR. DON EATON

"D. EATON" is the trademark of the man who, besides teaching the four years of art and the adult education ceramics class, does considerable art work on his own time. Enjoying most spectator sports, he also sponsors the junior class and the Art Club. He received a B.S. degree from Bowling Green State University.

MISS DENIE DENNISTON

A newcomer to Rogers, Miss Denniston teaches physiology and girls' physical education, and co-sponsors GAA and the Senior Scoreboard Club. Her spare time is spent on sports or in completing a thesis for an M.A. degree. Leading an eventful life, she attended college in California and Iowa, and was stationed in Cuba during the recent revolution.

MR. RAY EDWARDS

The "joker" of the pack of "cards" of Rogers High is Mr. Edwards. He enjoys reading, eating, and all sporting events, in addition to teaching plane and solid geometry, trigonometry, advanced algebra, and the math seminar. He attended Bowling Green State University, Miami University, University of Chicago, and University of Wyoming.

MR. WILLIAM ENGELKE

With the word, "Quiet!" the a cappella choir and the freshman glee club know that Mr. Engelke is ready to begin directing. Listening to music and working around the house take up this musician's non-school hours. He attended St. Olaf College and the University of Toledo for his B.E., A.B., and B. Music degrees.

The faculty strives to widen

MR. WILBUR FLAUGHER

When he isn't teaching, there is nothing Mr. Flaughner enjoys more than fishing, sailing his boat, or tinkering with cars. The vocational courses he teaches are woodworking, auto mechanics, and electricity and radio. He was graduated from Bowling Green State University, where he was awarded a B.S. degree.

MRS. JACQUELINE FREED

Returning to Rogers after a year and a half in Illinois, Mrs. Freed is kept busy with her junior English, personal typing, and Typing I classes. Adviser of the Bowling Club, she enjoys reading, swimming, and "teaching an enthusiastic class." Mrs. Freed attended the University of Toledo, earning her B.E.

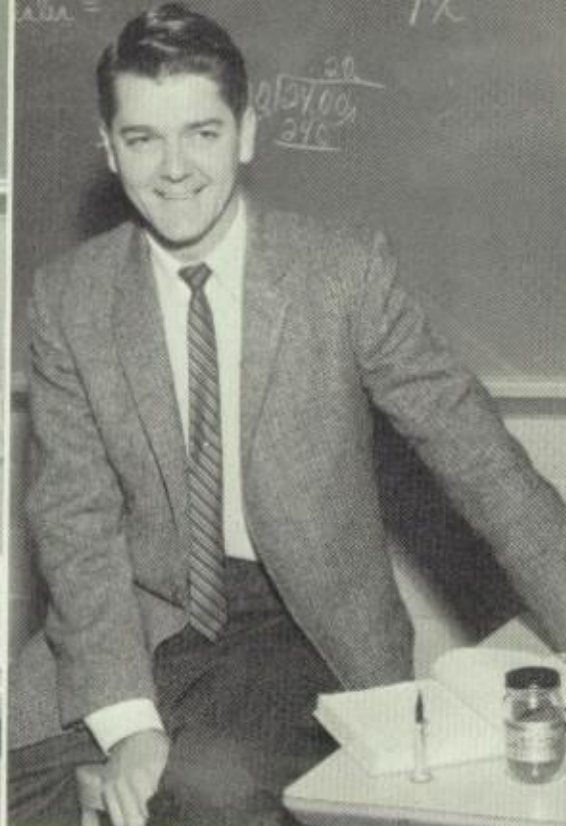

MR. FRANK GWOZDZ

The man in the "little red Renault" is Mr. Frank Gwozdz. A member of the Air Force Security Service three years before coming to Rogers, he teaches basic math and plane geometry. Mr. Gwozdz received his education at the University of Toledo and the University of Maryland, earning a B.A. degree.

MR. GEORGE HARRUFF

In his third year at Rogers, Mr. Harruff was kept busy with his vocational courses, machine shop and pattern making. An avid hunter, he may also be found working with wood on his days off. He graduated from Bowling Green State University, where he earned his B.S. and B.E.

MRS. BEVERLY HART

If you happen to hear clicking heels around Rogers, you can be sure it is Mrs. Hart, who was Miss Knisely until last December. In her first year of teaching freshman and junior English, she served as freshman Y-Teens adviser. Mrs. Hart received her B.E. from the University of Toledo.

MR. JOHN HASTY

In addition to his Algebra I and general science courses, Mr. Hasty is kept busy in his capacity of Student Council adviser. A devoted flier, he was the instigator of the Aviation Club. Mr. Hasty attended Milligan College, the University of Pittsburgh, and the Lincoln Bible Institute, earning his B.S., M.L., and B.A. degrees.

the horizons of our knowledge ■■■

MR. DALE HEPLER

Coach Hepler was a big asset in leading this year's frosh football team to the GLL championship. Varsity Club, Senior Scoreboard, and freshman class adviser, he attended Ohio University and the University of Toledo, earning his B.E. In addition to teaching civics and American history, he enjoys reading good books.

*To an improved character.
Dale Hepler*

MR. JAMES HAYS

In his second year at Rogers, Mr. Hays teaches world history and civics. He served as coach of the junior varsity football team and is an adviser of the Key, Varsity, and Senior Scoreboard Clubs. A graduate of the University of Toledo, with a B.S. and M.Ed., he enjoys golfing and vacationing.

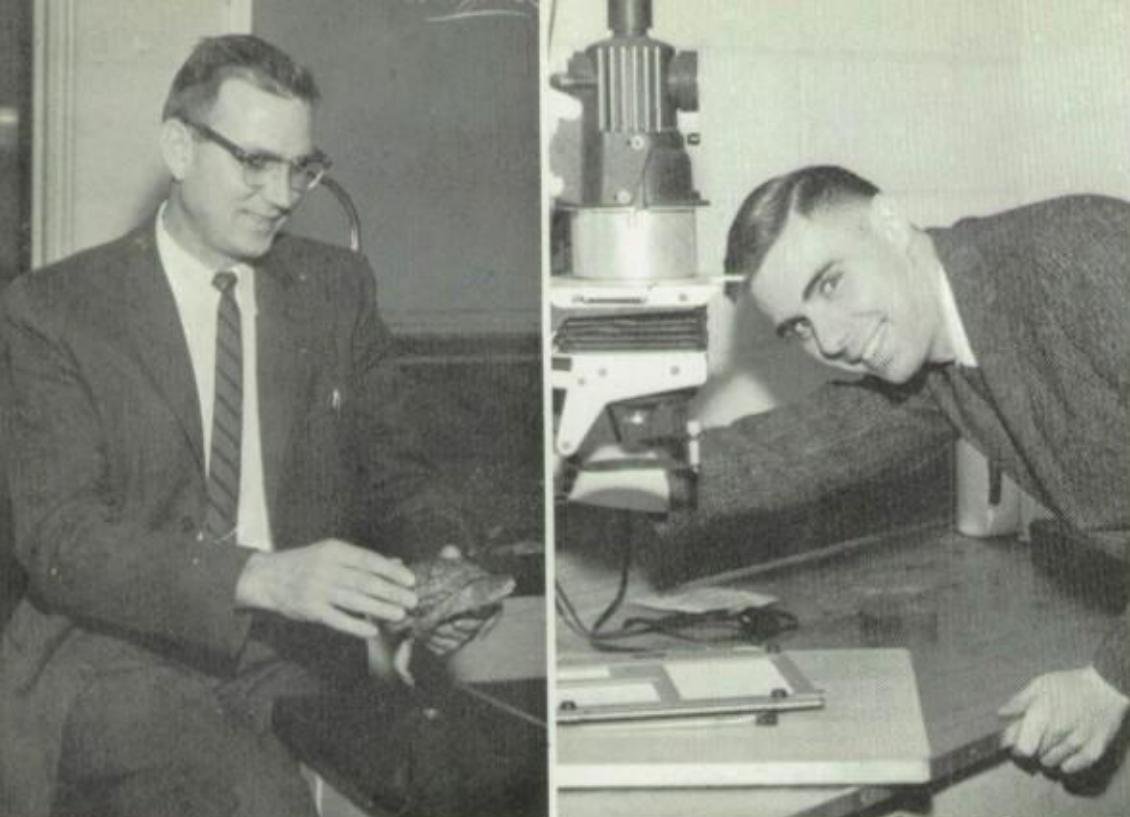

MR. CLEO LADD

This year, Mr. Ladd taught two phases of wood-working — in Industrial Arts I, and in an advanced course. He lists fishing and attending sporting events among his favorite pastimes. Mr. Ladd attended Bowling Green State University, Ohio Northern, and Indiana University, earning his B.S. and M.S. degrees.

MISS THEODORA LEONARD

"People . . . Shut your mouths . . . Please!" This cry is sometimes heard in Miss Leonard's English II and III classes. Future Teachers of America adviser, she enjoys reading, creative writing, and dancing. Miss Leonard is a graduate of Mary Manse College, where she earned her B.A. This is her first year at Rogers.

MR. JOSEPH LUCAS

You say that you have to dissect a worm in Room 222, and that you just had spaghetti for lunch? Blame Mr. Lucas, biology instructor. He attended University of Toledo and Franklin and Marshall College, earning his B.E. Mr. Lucas is adviser to the Biology and Archery Clubs, and enjoys hunting, fishing, and swimming.

MR. RAY LUSHER

Mr. Lusher counts one of the subjects he teaches — photography — among his many hobbies. In addition to that class, he also teaches mechanical drawing, printing, and electricity. A graduate of Bowling Green State University, where he earned his B.S., Mr. Lusher is in his third year of teaching at Rogers.

Because of the education gained

MISS IBIS MARINOSCI

"Bueno!" echoes from this senorita's clases de Español. Attending Normal Nacional de Rio Cuarto and Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, she received her Maestro Normal Nacional, Traductor de Inglés, and Profesora de Inglés degrees. Miss Marinosci is here as an exchange teacher during Miss Carol Johnson's leave for study in Mexico.

MR. FREDERICK MARLO

Ohio Northern and Ohio State have furnished "The Big M" with B.S. and M.A. degrees. A senior class adviser and faculty member of Quill & Scroll, he teaches English II, journalism, and publications. "Dumbheads" his nemesis, he frantically strives to have his Rampage and Rogerian staffs grasp the meaning of deadline.

MRS. NANCY MARTIN

Cutting up a cat's carcass was among the projects in Mrs. Martin's physiology classes. "Let's move, ladies!" and her physical education classes would begin. The adviser to the varsity cheerleaders is in her third year at Rogers following her education at Wittenberg College and Bowling Green State University. She holds B.S. and M.E. degrees.

MISS MARGARET MILLER

A little bit of Paris is in Rogers High School in the person of Miss Miller. Gaining her accent from Oxford College, La Sorbonne, University of Paris, L'Ecole Francaise, and Middlebury College, la belle mademoiselle instructs her charges in the language of the diplomats. She enjoys her French Club, traveling, and the piano.

MR. CLIFFORD MYERS

"I'm a grouch!" claims Mr. Clifford Myers. Director of the marching band, concert band, orchestra, and activity band, he enjoys teaching, fishing, and hunting. Attending Morris Harvey College, Rio Grande College, and Ohio State University, he earned his B.S. and M.A. Currently, he is in his fourth year at Rogers.

MR. CLIFFORD NELSON

His favorite hobbies, hunting and fishing, offered Mr. Nelson a welcome respite from a busy schedule. With regular classes in Typing I and II and business arithmetic, he also taught an evening adult education course. He attended Bowling Green State University and the University of Toledo, earning a B.S. degree.

we shall always remember them ■■■

MR. ROBERT O'CONNELL

Formerly in the business world, Mr. O'Connell earned an M.E. at the University of Toledo and came to Rogers for his first year of teaching. His history classes also benefit from his studies at John Carroll University. Mr. O'Connell, adviser of the Tennis Club, enjoys sports, jazz, classical music, and traveling.

MR. THOMAS PARENT

In his first year at Rogers, Mr. Parent teaches classes in algebra, physics, and general science, and is adviser of the Science Club. He lists his hobbies as swimming and listening to grand opera. Mr. Parent attended the University of Toledo and Otterbein College, where he earned his B.A. and B.S. degrees.

MR. ROGER PHILLIPS

Returning to Rogers after a two year stint in the service, Mr. Phillips acted as co-director of the fall play, The Loud Red Patrick. Public speaking, dramatics, and English II teacher, he attended Bowling Green State University, earning a B.S. Mr. Phillips is an enthusiastic jazz fan and camera fiend.

MR. ROBERT RITTICHIER

"Does everyone understand?" is often posed by Mr. Rittichier to his American government classes. Head of the Social Studies Department, he enjoys fishing, reading, and music. This football and wrestling coach received his B.E. and M.E. at Miami University and the University of Toledo.

MRS. MARION SCHNELL

In her second year at Rogers, Mrs. Schnell teaches Algebra I and general mathematics. She says she is the happiest when she is with people. In addition to receiving a B.E. from the University of Toledo, she also attended Adrian College. Currently, she holds a National Science Foundation scholarship at TU.

MRS. ELISABETH SCHROEDER

A graduate of Defiance College, Mrs. Schroeder enjoys teaching her "enthusiastic" general science and biology classes. She enjoys teaching, reading, and using her favorite expression, "This is class participation in silence and study!" Outside the realm of teaching duties, Mrs. Schroeder is a sophomore class adviser.

The many subjects they taught

MISS JOSEPHINE SPARKS

Constantly contriving to create compositions, the five senior English classes take up most of Miss Sparks' day. As if facing seniors all day isn't enough, she also advises their class. The head of Rogers' English Department has her B.S. and M.A. from Ohio State and Columbia Universities.

MR. HAROLD TITTLE

Mr. Tittle was kept busy with his American history and general business classes this year, but not too busy to hunt with his "good dogs." Bowling Club adviser, he attended the University of Toledo, earning his B.B.A., B.E., and M.Ed. Currently in his fourth year at Rogers, he enjoys teaching and traveling.

MRS. VIRGINIA VALO

"Doing things with my family" and golfing are among the activities which Mrs. Valo lists as her favorites. Holding a B.S.H.E., she attended Valparaiso, Purdue, and Toledo Universities. She teaches the four years of homemaking and advises the Future Nurses of America Club. This is Mrs. Valo's first year at Rogers.

MR. JAMES TRESE

Mr. Trese claims eleven years in the Adams Township schools — two at Rogers and the other nine at Mt. Vernon elementary. He therefore knows many Rogerites whom he taught in the seventh and eighth grades. Mr. Trese teaches special education and is Chess Club adviser. He holds B.A. and B.E. degrees.

MRS. MILDRED VAN FLEET

Tempus fugit! This year Mrs. Van Fleet was kept even busier, as she taught Latin I, Latin II, and the new Latin III class. Now in her fourth year at Rogers, she attended the College of Wooster, College of William and Mary, Bowling Green State University, and Tufts University, earning her B.A.

MR. FORREST WARNER

Class adviser and American government teacher, Mr. Warner is no stranger to the seniors. His B.S. and M.S. are from Bowling Green State University, Ohio State University, and Wittenberg College. Occupying most of his spare time are his 24 horses and 90 acre farm. His pet expression: "There's no substitute for brains."

MR. RUSSELL WEST

Adviser to the student librarians, student projectionists, and the Great Books Club, Mr. West received his B.S. and M.S. from Ohio University, University of Wisconsin, Western Reserve University, and York Junior College. The librarian is best noted for his unique book-talks given in the various English classes.

Cooks, bus drivers, and custodians also hold an important position in the school.

This year, besides preparing lunch daily, the cooks inaugurated a morning breakfast program, consisting of coffee, rolls, cocoa, and milk for the faculty and student body.

Every day, the many township bus drivers bring us safely to school. Some of their other duties are driving Rogers' athletic teams to games and transporting students on field trips.

Keeping Rogers neat and clean, the custodians work long hours before, during, and after school.

These men and women are well-known and appreciated by all Rogerites.

This is a typical scene at lunchtime in the cafeteria.

THAT

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

WITH FOUR YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL LIFE TO REMEMBER, THE SENIORS LEAVE ROGERS TO ENTER THE FIELDS OF THEIR CALLING. THESE VALUABLE SCHOOL DAYS HAVE BEEN AIMED TO DEVELOP EACH PERSON INTELLECTUALLY AND SOCIALLY. THE CLASS OF 1960 IS PREPARED FOR THE FUTURE WITH A KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD AND ITS INFINITE OPPORTUNITIES.

OUR GOAL IS THE FUTURE, OUR DUTY
IS USING WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED:
WITH THIS WE SHALL SUCCEED.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Senior Class Officers: Paul Bollin, vice-president; Judy Work, treasurer; Diane Keiser, secretary; Dale Bodell, president.

The long-awaited year has come;

Graduates of 1960 have the honor of being the first class to complete all four years at Rogers.

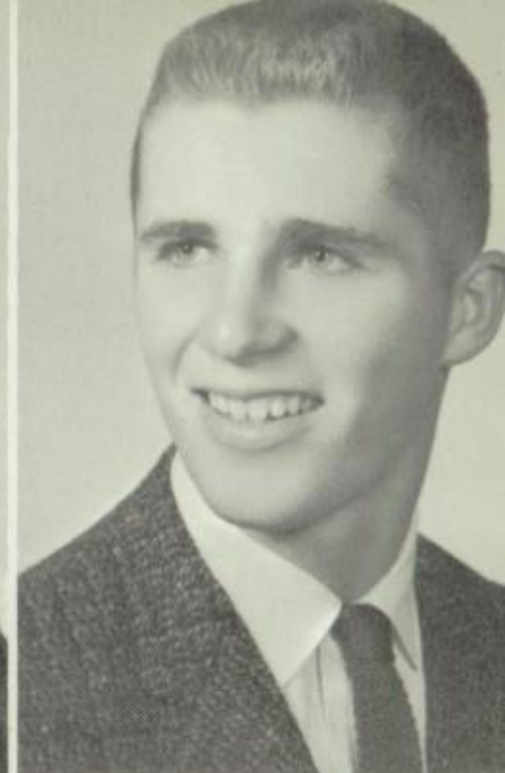

Entering a new school gave us many advantages. At the new Rogers High School freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors were all starting on an equal basis, an unusual occurrence for high school students. The class of 1960 has had the opportunity to establish many precedents. Projects such as helping in building the football stadium and baseball diamond, paying for the press box, and buying the needed athletic and band equipment were some of our activities. Many of the school and individual club activities — the special annual dances, the bonfire, the annual award assembly, the pep assemblies, and the homecoming — have become traditional partly through the efforts of our class. We initiated the Senior Scoreboard Club whose main purpose was to secure a scoreboard for the stadium. In these ways and many more, the class of '60 has seen Rogers grow — beginning as an empty building and progressing to an outstanding educational plant. Having contributed greatly, the seniors are proud of its rapid growth.

Each year brought new interests, new friends, and an awakening of individual talents. We have had a successful athletic year because our team members have worked together for four years; many of them received GLL honors. In addition to athletic achievements several students achieved exceptional results in National Merit Scholarship Competition and other competitive exams, constituting our class's high scholastic standing. Among our classmates, there have been leaders in many of the aspects of school life.

Highlights of this senior year will be remembered as the victorious homecoming, the mad scramble of ordering senior pictures, the Prom, and the thrill of graduation day.

The graduates of 1960 are indebted to our advisors, Miss Sparks, Miss Collins, Mr. Marlo, Mr. Warner, and Mr. Rittichier, whose support and enthusiasm helped to make our senior year the best. We will never forget "The Wonderful Year — 1959-60."

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

EXPERIENCES THROUGH BOOKS AND PERSONAL CONTACTS WERE GAINED BY UNDERCLASSMEN ENTERING THE PORTALS OF ROGERS HIGH. EARLY IN HIGH SCHOOL LIFE, FUTURE COURSES WERE SELECTED. CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES ALSO WERE FITTED INTO ALREADY TIGHT SCHEDULES. GROUNDWORK FOR THE FUTURE IS THE EXPERIENCE THUS GAINED.

EDUCATION IS THE APPRENTICESHIP OF LIFE AND HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE FORMATION OF CHARACTER.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Wayne Jones, vice-president; Ken Rieger, president; Elaine Schwartz, secretary; and Dave Kasprzak, treasurer.

In our three years at R H S

Ever since the very day we came to Rogers High as eighth graders, we have longed to be upperclassmen. Now at last we've made it — Rogers fourth junior class. Our proof of being juniors finally came as we received our long-awaited rings.

We really got underway, however, when the junior class officers — Ken Rieger, president; Wayne Jones, vice-president; Elaine Schwartz, secretary; and Dave Kasprzak, treasurer — were elected. The junior year was a busy one, joining clubs and participating in sports, in addition to our heavy curriculum. All our money-making projects were to raise funds for our one main goal, the junior-senior prom.

Our climb up the ladder wasn't all rosy for we've had our ups and downs. It meant lots of hard work, but also a lot of fun to get where we are.

Our class is one which excels in three S's. The first is that of Scholarship. Our class ranked high in scholastic ability and gained recognition through this. The second S constitutes Sports. In this field we have outstanding athletic ability. The last stands for Spirit. We have an inexhaustible store of pep and spirit and are certainly above average in this point.

Our loyalty and dedication to Rogers has grown through the years. Rogers High no longer means just another school to us, but rather it makes us proud to be a part of such a great institution. We as juniors realize all the great achievements of Rogers and we pledge our best to her.

We will never forget our memorable junior year with all its fun, parties, dances, and studies which made up THAT WONDERFUL YEAR 1959-60.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Pam Oliver, secretary; Bob Gilley, president; Bobbie Oaks, vice president; and Carl La Plante, treasurer.

We've survived as freshmen ■■■

After the orientation period of our freshman year, during which time our rough edges were smoothed and we became acclimated to the ways of the high school life, we returned this year as sophomores — with all the attributes that that name implies: wise and all knowing.

Learning to be good high school students, taking part more actively in the school's activities and affairs, both curricular and extracurricular, and participating more enthusiastically in the athletic program were all facets of this, our second year in Rogers High School.

After we elected our officers — Bob Gilley, president; Bobbie Oaks, vice-president; Pam Oliver, secretary; and Carl LaPlante, treasurer — and our representatives to the Student Council we gained more and more recognition with the progress of the school year.

We were the first class to receive notable recognition for group activity when we received school-wide honor for purchasing the greatest number of tags in the "Buy A Bulb" contest, sponsored by the newly-formed Senior Scoreboard Club.

Entering our sophomore year, our personalities had developed to the point where we continuously gained more and more friends. We worked as a closely knit group, unified in our labors and struggles. While we learned to know and understand others better, we started to recognize familiar personality traits. It was at this time that we began to place ourselves in a vital period of self-analysis.

As we ascended the ladder of education, striving for the heights attained by our predecessors, we were given and did assume a greater degree of responsibility and leadership. In the fields of education, activities, organizations, and athletics, our members took part in increased numbers.

With the closing of our sophomore year, we have marked the halfway point of our careers in Rogers High School. Our outlook and perspective on life have widened, and, as we look forward to our two final years, we can truly remember our sophomore days as THAT WONDERFUL YEAR 1959-60.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Bev Gilley, vice-president; Dick Wagoner, president; Sandy Reynolds, treasurer; and Ginger Lorenzen, secretary.

We're Rogers newest members ■■■

In the fall as we entered Rogers High, we crossed the portals as the largest class in the history of the four year old school. Being from different elementary schools scattered throughout the township, we came as a group of strangers to everyone including ourselves. However, our new-found freshman classmates were not the only "strangers" we met, for we had to undergo an entirely new regime. We had to learn to share lockers, follow the class schedules, learn to make our next class in the four minute limit, meet the requirements of several teachers instead of just one, and to study much harder.

After the hustle of the first few weeks in our new environment, when we finally became adjusted to a high school schedule, our freshman class officers and Student Council representatives were elected, and, officially, we became a class. Under the capable leadership of our new officers: Dick Wagoner, president; Bev Gilley, vice-president; Ginger Lorenzen, secretary; and Sandy Reynolds, treasurer, we were ready for a good start for our freshman year.

Because we were in our first year, the number of activities in which we could participate was naturally limited; however, as individuals we were to become very active. We joined the various clubs and organizations which appealed to our individual interests; we participated in the intramural athletic games; we developed into loyal, cheering fans at the games both home and away and made our section heard at the pep assemblies; and, finally, we began to achieve our social poise by attending school dances and social events.

Thus in the comparatively short period of a nine month school year, we changed from a group of relatively unknown classmates into a closely-knit first year class. In that time we grew in scholastic ability, developed class unity, gained recognition by our varied achievements, and attained school spirit, all in THAT WONDERFUL YEAR 1959-60.

THE AIM OF A WELL DEVELOPED ATHLETIC PROGRAM IS MULTIFOLD AND COMPLEX. IN ADDITION TO THAT CONSTANT DESIRE TO WIN IS THE INCULCATION OF THE IDEA OF FAIR PLAY. Every football victory is a team effort, but at the same time, there are always some boys who are outstanding at their positions. The outstanding boys of Rogers' football squad were honored at the end of the 1959 season with the all-league selections. Twelve seniors and one junior were picked for the ALL-GLL team, chosen on the basis of their performance on the gridiron.

In 1959 the best football team in the school's history played on the Rogers' gridiron. For the first time, Rogers was a serious contender for the Great Lakes League championship. The Rams had to settle for second place, but only after building the best league and over-all record that any Rogers' varsity football squad had achieved.

The Rams, credited as being one of the power-house teams in the area, opened the season with routs over Anthony Wayne and Sylvania. Saint Francis turned the tables, and Rogers fell to its first defeat at the Toledo University Glass Bowl. Turning back to their winning ways, the Rams pounced on league opponent Fostoria, and RHS was on top in the GLL. Monroe Central Catholic, one of the best teams in Michigan, handed the Rams their second loss in one of the most exciting games of the season. Whitmer, the wonder-team and champion of the league, stomped on Rogers' title hopes with a 36—0 rout.

The next two games of the season were easy wins for Rogers, but at the same time Clay was trying to unseat Rogers from second place with a victory drive. The Rams and defending champion Eagles met Clay in a game which would determine who finished in second place. Gail Platzke scored three touchdowns, as he had done once before, and the Rams came out on top, 22—14. The only sour notes of the season were the surprise romp by Whitmer, and the fact that the Ram varsity would lose 22 of 38 members of the best team that has ever been assembled.

1959 VARSITY SENIORS

Rogers varsity football team has improved every year in the school's history, and 22 varsity seniors saw to it that this year would be no exception. These boys knew that this was to be their last season in the Ram uniform, and they made it the best year ever. Knowing that Clay, a long-time rival, would be their last high school game, they vaulted Rogers to its first victory over the defending champion Eagles.

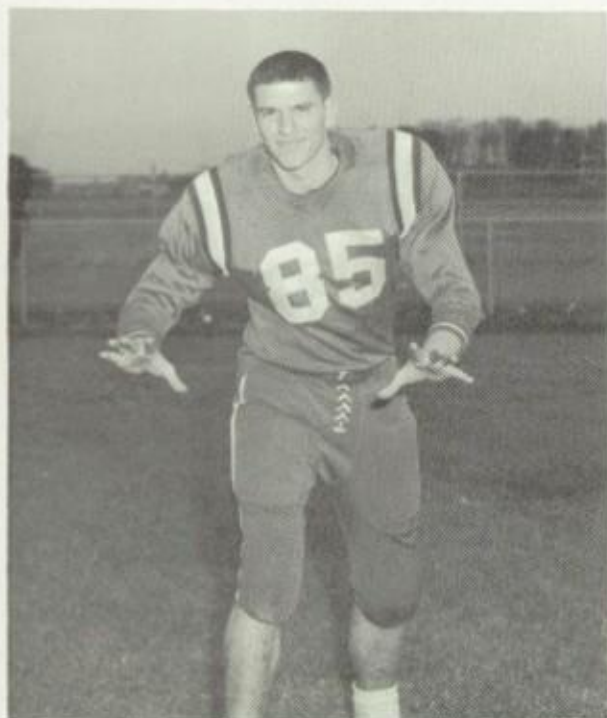

Taking second place in the Great Lakes League, and bringing Rogers its most successful football season were accomplishments of which the seniors can well be proud. The only sad note of the '59 season is that these 22 members of Rogers' best football team must be graduated from its ranks.

At the annual football banquet these senior ball-players were honored, and two were given special awards for their ability and performance. Gail Platzke received the trophy for being the "Most Valuable Player," and Don Wheeler was voted the "Most Improved Player" of the season.

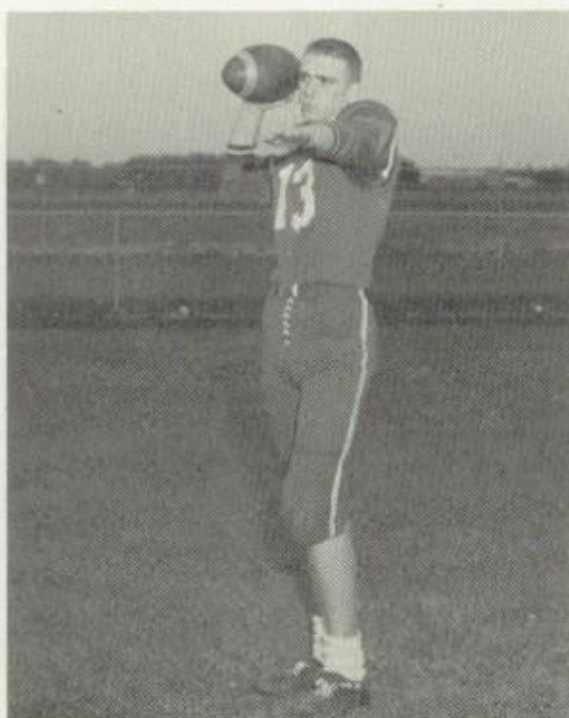

Eleven seniors from Rogers were honored by being elected to the Toledo Blade's All GLL list; these were Gail Platzke, Chuck Platzke, Phil Yerrick, Don Wheeler, Ron Bauer, Jim Minakes, Merrell Solowin, Joe Tiller, Bill Anderson, Bruce Alexander, and Mel Brode.

Looking back at the 1959 gridiron season, we will always remember with pride the seniors who did so much to make it the great success that it was.

MANAGERS

Behind every team stands a corps of managers who devote its time to organizing practices, supplying equipment, handling minor injuries, and running thousands of errands. The boys who worked as managers on the Rams' gridiron were Gary Abbe, Jim Reifert, Ron Welty, Walter Filas, and John Laberdee.

Junior squads gained experience

The 1959 reserves fought hard, and carried the name of Rogers as best they could. But the progress made by the junior varsity was not tangible, and was not shown by the statistics. The Rams finished in last place winning only one game against six defeats. Still the reserves gained experience, know-how, and determination; these are ingredients needed in the molding of the Rogers' varsity team.

Freshman football players entered the season, green and inexperienced. When the year is over they know whether or not they can play football. Rogers' freshman team knows how. The frosh were so proficient at their sport that they won the GLL title, and compiled the best record for any Rogers' freshman team. As frosh champions, they are fine material for next year's reserves.

Varsity Basketball

Rogers' varsity basketball team accomplished feats in the 1959-60 season that are unparalleled in the history of the school. The Rams plowed through the ten game league schedule without a single defeat, being the first team in the GLL to go all the way without a loss. In over-all play, however, the Rams were upset by Anthony Wayne in one of the first games of the year. The only other defeat on Rogers'

15—2 record was to Woodward, co-champion of the city league.

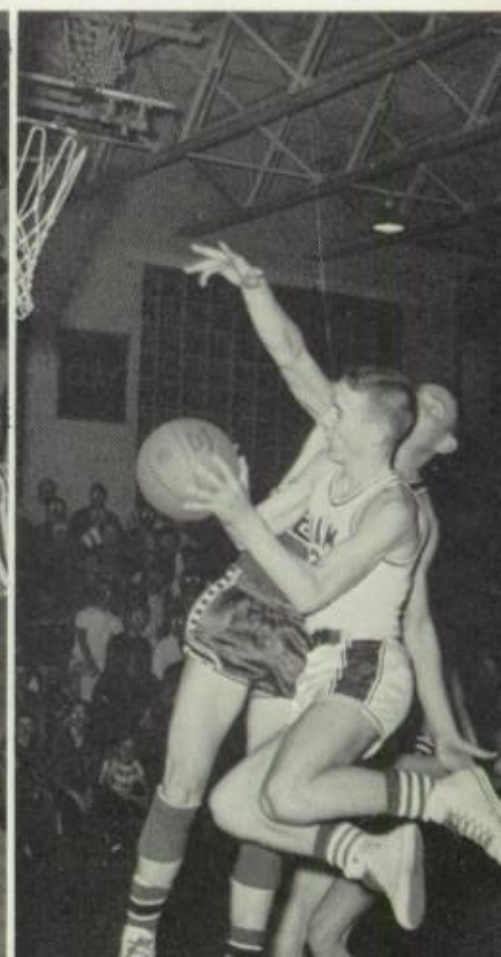

Climaxing the year for Rogers' most successful basketball team, the All-GLL selections were dominated by Ram cagers. Jim Richardson, Phil Yenrick, and Ken Greene were all named to the first five. Ron Brown and Don Wheeler both were given honorable mention.

Seven seniors and five juniors comprised this year's basketball team: the best squad the school has produced and the tops in the 1959-60 Great Lakes League competition. Even with the graduation of these seven seniors, including four All-GLL selections, Rogers can look forward to strong teams in the next years, due to the spirit and tradition started this year.

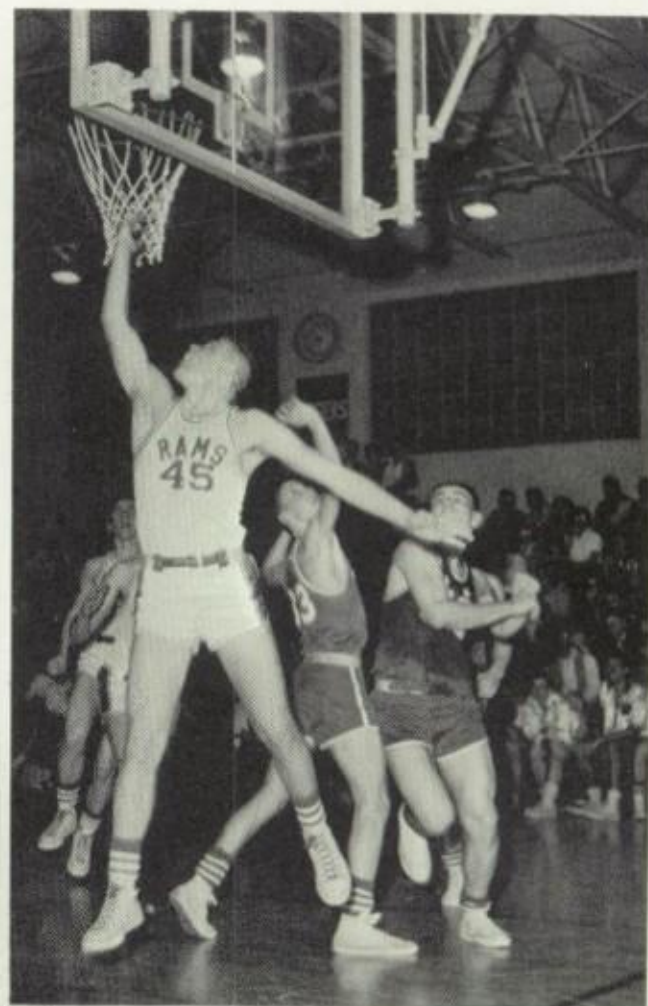

The juniors who remain, including Ron Brown who made honorable mention on the All-GLL squad, will be the heart of next year's team. The rest of the varsity will be the reserve team that took second place in the league.

It will be hard for any squad to fill the gym shoes left by this year's champion team, however. On the team of 1959-60 were top scorers, rebounders, fast floor-men, tough men in the clutch, and top play-makers. This year's bench strength was top quality, and was the difference in many ball games. Such a combination built a GLL champion that will be hard to replace.

Nothing in

It looks as if Phil Yenrick didn't get this shot off, but he and his teammates did score enough points to make Roger's varsity the scourge of the Great Lakes League. After falling early in the season to Anthony Wayne and Woodward, the Rams went on to win the league championship and end the year with an overall mark of 15—2.

Reserve Basketball

The reserve basketball team, coached by Ray Edwards, finished the season in second place in the Great Lakes League with a record of 14 wins and only 3 losses. On top of being a winning team, the Rams set two records for the school. The highest Ram score ever recorded was 60 points against Bowling Green, and a string of nine consecutive wins was a feat never achieved by a former Rogers' team. Randy Dunham and John Preston were consistently top scorers, with the backing of the team vaulting the team to many victories. Next season Coach Edwards will replace Robert Schultz as coach of the varsity basketball team. Assistant Principal Schultz will devote full time to duties in administration.

Freshman Basketball

Ending the league season with a 5—0 record gave the Ram freshmen the GLL championship for the 1959-60 season. The frosh won their important games, and although they lost three games in their over-all record of 6—3, the Ram freshmen were the scourge of the league.

Throughout the year, Greg Zitkus, Tom Dence, and Dick Wagoner were the high scorers for the freshman Rams, and they led their teammates to the frosh basketball trophy.

When the season was completed the freshmen entered the Sylvania Invitational Tournament where they played all the GLL teams again. The Rams won all their games and clinched their second trophy in one year. Such a performance indicates the potential power of future Rogers' varsity cage teams.

Varsity cheerleaders made sure that there was never a dull moment for they were always ready with a cheer to boost the morale and back the team.

Football, practically the symbol of high school athletics, gives the boys a chance to display their athletic and sportsmanship ability. Naturally, all the players can't be in the game at once, and this makes the alternate team wait on the sidelines for its chance to participate in the contest. This waiting can be hard on the boys, but when the coach calls on them, he needs a good player and each of them must be ready to play to the utmost of his capacity.

There is not only one team representing the school, but two squads — the offensive and defensive teams. When both are working to perfection and playing their best football, the team and its school will be a winner.

Fridays in the fall

The freshman football team ended a successful year by winning the GLL championship. During a special pep rally, the co-captains presented the team's trophy to Mr. Fishbaugh and the school.

The weekly pep rallies, football games, and after-game dances played a big role in that wonderful year of 1959-60.

It will always be easy to remember those Fridays when the walls shook and the cheerleaders still wanted everybody to cheer a little louder.

Memories of the game itself are of excitement, victory, and sportsmanship, along with frozen toes and a complete loss of voice.

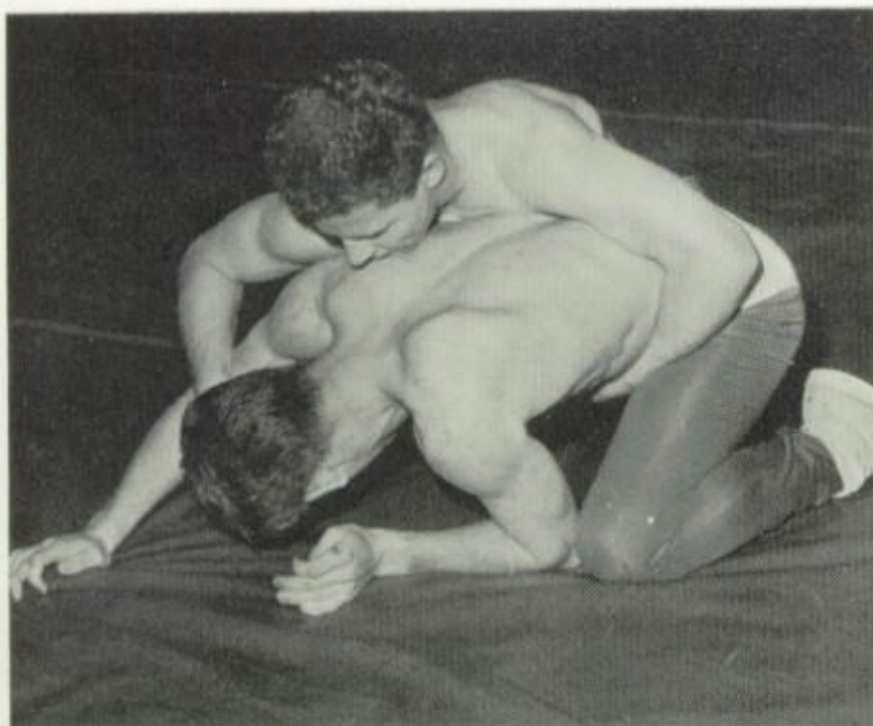

After the game no one seemed to mind the crowded dance floor and the fact that the records couldn't be heard over the talking. They were always successful dances, anyway.

These are everyday happenings to Rogerites, but it won't be long until they can only be recaptured in memories of the sporting life at Rogers High.

For the second straight year, Ram

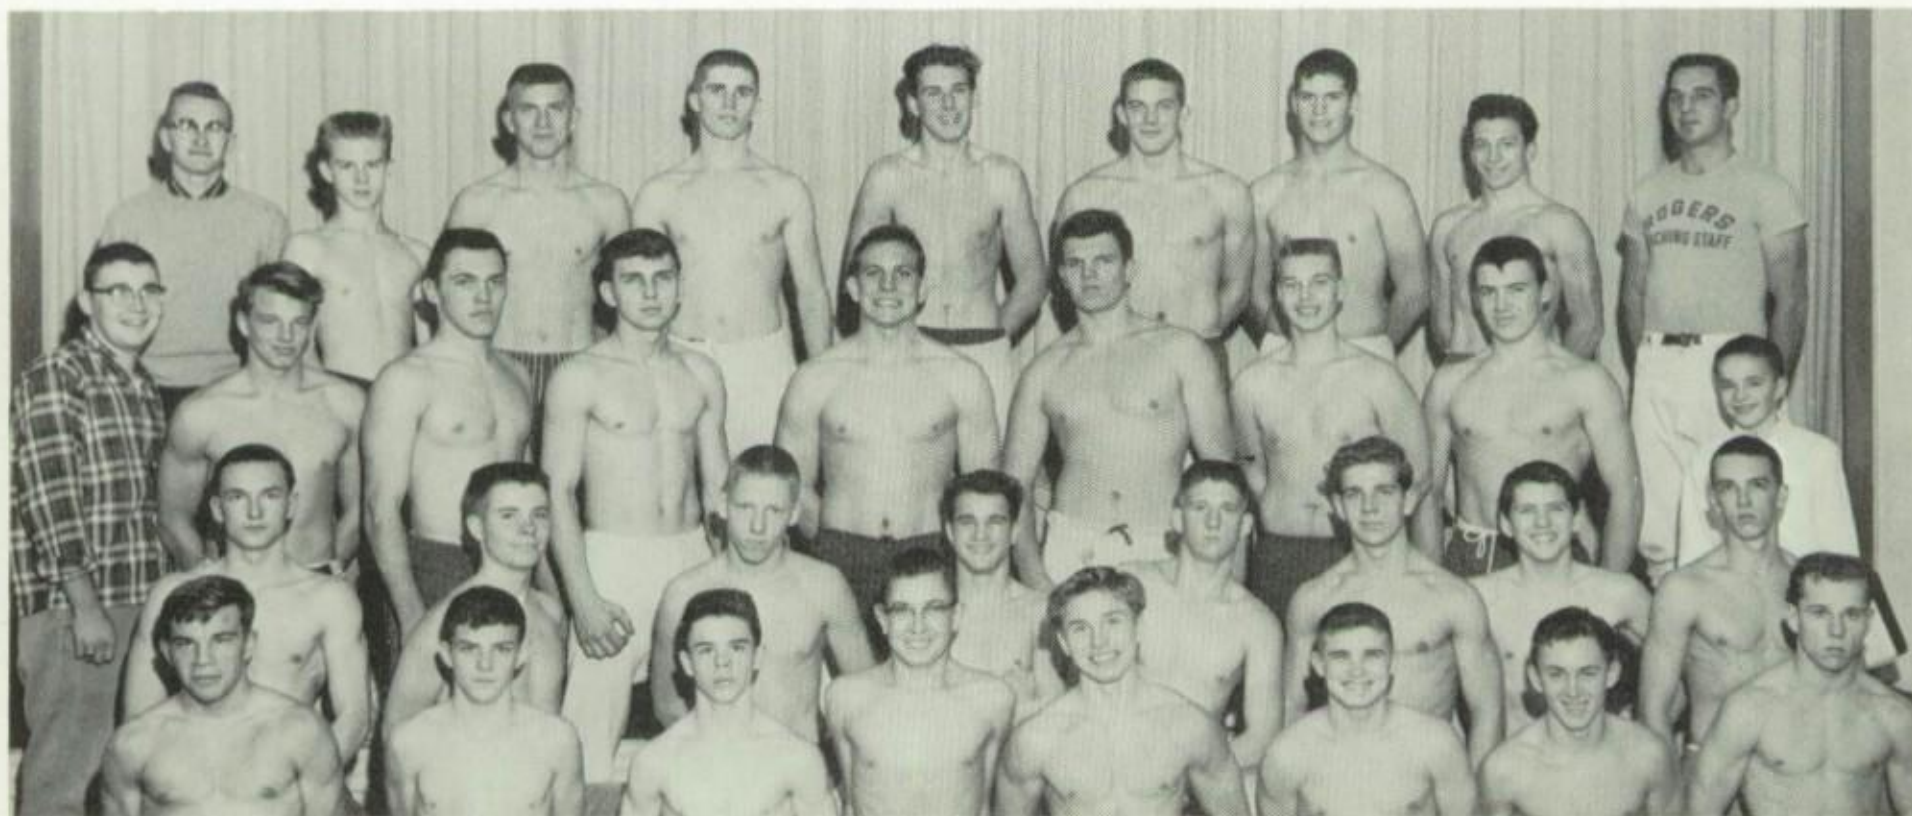

Rugged wrestlers representing Rogers plowed through their season of eleven matches, winning every one, to cop the Great Lakes League championship for the second consecutive year. At the beginning of the season, Coach Robert Rittichier expressed the hope that some of the weight classes would be filled with good men, and that if that happened the Rams would have a good season. Evidently it happened, for no team on Rogers' schedule could whip the Rams.

Always there to help with some needed points were once defeated Bob Zachman and Bruce Alexander.

Chuck Platzke and Merrell Solowin lost no matches and were often a part of Rogers' victory drives. Against Whitmer, the team the Rams had to beat, Platzke had to defeat his man and Solowin needed to pin his opponent. Otherwise the contest would end in a tie, and first place would be undecided. Platzke brought the Rams within three and Solowin got his pin to give the Rams a two point victory. This, and other such wins sparked Rogers' wrestling to new heights in popularity, and a second championship season.

Senior Wrestlers

After every season, especially a successful one, comes the thought of graduation and how big a toll it will take. Rogers' wrestling team faces the loss of eight grapplers; six of them are regulars, three are sectional champions, and one is the state heavy weight champion. Still, a wealth of material remains — material that will work hard and try to win Rogers' third straight GLL wrestling championship.

Rogerites saw lots of action when they went to see the Ram grapplers work. Every match was a challenge for the muscles and knowledge of the wrestler, and it was a test for the nerves of the spectators.

So interesting were the wrestling matches of 1959-60 that really large crowds were attracted for the first time. The meets in which Rogers met Sylvania and Whitmer in the battle for first place drew about 500 people.

At the end of the year, Rogerites were talking in wrestling terms: take-down, pin, cross face, sit up, and riding time. School acceptance, big crowds, and a successful team were all part of the growing popularity of wrestling action.

Hard work earned

A strong arm keeps Alexander's man from escaping.

State Champion

Merrell Solowin, quiet and modest all the way, went through the 1959-60 season in a way that won him much honor and distinction. Merrell started where he left off last year with 17 straight victories, and went on to win 29 in a row during the regulation season. Most of these wins were by pins.

After winning his twenty-ninth, it was time to go into sectional action. Competition got tougher and pins didn't come as easily, but Merrell weathered the storm and advanced to the state finals. Merrell had the chance to win the state heavyweight title two years in a row, but the going would be tough.

Rogerites' confidence in Solowin was fulfilled March 6, when the announcement was made that Merrell had retained his crown. After sparking the team to many victories, Solowin earned special honor for himself. Now, more than ever, Merrell is a prime target for scholarships, future Olympics, and he is a credit to Rogers' athletic program.

Bruce Alexander

After completing successful seasons and winning in the sectional tournaments, Chuck Platzke and Bruce Alexander were given the honor of appearing in Ohio's state tournament. Chuck went undefeated all season, and Bruce lost one match, a squeaker at that.

At Columbus, Bruce was nipped in the first day of play. Chuck was able to advance and placed second in the state in his weight class.

Coupled with Solowin, Platzke and Alexander earned fifth place for Rogers as a team. This well out-distanced any of the other representatives from Toledo. These three boys also were the difference in the team standings in the sectional tourney, which Rogers won for the first time.

Rogers' reserve baseball team was the best in the school's history, as the Rams took second place in the GLL by winning seven games, while losing only two. Ed McComesky was the leading pitcher as well as a top batter, and teammate Tom Sherman was the Rams' top slugger. Coach Dale Hepler stated that this junior varsity team will make a good varsity next season, naming Jim Polaski, Bob Burkhart, Tom Adamski, and Dan Kasprzak as top varsity prospects.

ACTIVITIES

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

PARTICIPATING IN VARIOUS EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AFFORDS THE STUDENT MANY PLEASURES. THE SCOPE OF THE SCHOOL'S ACTIVITY PROGRAM IS WIDE, CONSISTING OF SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS, THE EDUCATIONAL CLUBS, AND SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS. COUPLED WITH THE CURRICULAR PROGRAM, CLUBS BUILD WELL-ROUNDED CITIZENS.

THE WORLD IS GOOD, AND THE PEOPLE ARE GOOD, AND WE'RE ALL GOOD FELLOWS TOGETHER.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Evonne Pohlman, secretary; Mike Cochran, vice-president; Mr. Hasty, adviser; Irene Rogers, president; Sue Ann Washburn, treasurer.

Keeping the Student Council school store in supplies are Janice Smith, Barbara Evans, Irene Rogers, and Joan Stoltz.

Dedicated to

The Student Council of Rogers High School dedicates itself to serve the student body by building better cooperation and understanding among the students and between students and teachers. In addition to teaching the students to govern themselves, the Council teaches them responsibility, leadership, and self control. In order to make the Council democratic, the students elect the leaders of the student government through a school-wide election each spring. Keeping good sportsmanship among the students at the game is accomplished through a sportsmanship contest which is one of the many projects it sponsors. It joins Toledo and area schools in a city-wide polio drive and promotes school Christmas spirit through a decorating contest among the clubs. In the social vein the Student Council sponsored a formal dance, Icicle Illusion, just before the Christmas holidays. In the spring, as graduation nears, it plans and supervises the annual awards assembly. Through these various activities the Student Council strived to build character and make good citizens of Rogers' student body in THAT WONDERFUL YEAR 1959-60.

GAA

The Girls Athletic Association gives any senior, junior, or sophomore girl interested in athletics an opportunity to participate in sports during after-school hours. During the year sports such as hockey, volleyball, basketball, badminton, ping-pong, shuffle board, and softball are offered. Participation in GAA is based on a girl's interest in a particular sport. Not only does a GAA girl take an active part in sports, but she is also active in the social projects of the club. This year, GAA sponsored a Fun Night, the annual GAA dance, and prepared a Christmas social project. Its main feature, however, was the annual GAA Mother and Daughter banquet. At this event, the girls received awards for their year's work. These honors were in the form of either a pin, a letter, or a special senior award. Three trophies are given annually to the three outstanding senior girls in hockey, volleyball, and basketball. Success has marked the association's efforts in promoting recreation and sportsmanship among girls.

These letters indicate excellence

Rogers Varsity Club is composed of athletes who have earned a varsity letter in football, basketball, wrestling, track, or baseball. In addition to being outstanding in their respective sports, these boys also perform many services for their fellow athletes and the student body by promoting good sportsmanship throughout the school. The Varsity Club serves Rogers further by helping the athletic department in constantly bettering the sports program. Although the club receives its sponsorship from the school, it receives much of its backing from the Athletic Boosters, an organization of parents and other adults, who are also trying to develop further the Rogers High School athletic program.

VARSITY CLUB

What Rogers' enthusiastic athletes aim for is the Varsity "R" and membership in the Varsity Club.

Groups of able-bodied boys form the international Key Club which provides practical means for enduring friendships, renders unselfish services, and helps build a better community. As part of their service to the school Rogers' Key Club painted the football stadium light poles and the press box this year. Open to senior, junior, and sophomore boys, the Key Club gives them an opportunity to perform valuable services for the school and for the community. After game dances and car washes are projects which enable the Key Club to obtain funds.

Y-TEENS

To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities and to love God are the ideals stressed in Y-Teens, an international organization. Planning service projects for the local community, the girls learn to work together while helping people. They direct their efforts for the welfare of the needy and the less fortunate. Club activities include the initiation of the freshmen by the seniors, a pep shaker sale, fudge sales, splash parties, and various service projects. As part of the organization, Y-Teens strives to build good character and better citizens; it stresses leadership, initiative, drive, cooperation, expression and kindness.

ROGERIAN

With each new staff, the task of publishing the Rogerian becomes more difficult for each staff sets a higher goal than the last. The compiling of the year's many activities into an album or an historical annual was the difficult and time-consuming job the publications staff faced. Many students entered the class with little or no experience, but as the work progressed the annual began to take shape. When the Rampage finally announced that the last deadline had been met, anticipation from the staff and student body continued to grow until that awaited day when the Rogerian was distributed as the history of THAT WONDERFUL YEAR 1959-60.

With the aid of their adviser, Mr. Fred Marlo, the thirteen members of the Rampage staff wrote, edited, mimeographed, and sold the school newspaper each week throughout the school year. The aim of the staff was to inform, entertain, and educate the student body about the various events taking place in the school and community. Last year the paper received a blue-ribbon, first place certificate for a superior rating in the Northwestern Ohio District Journalism Association, and was awarded a gold trophy for technical excellence at the Bowling Green convention.

GREAT BOOKS

Begun in 1958 in affiliation with the Great Books Foundation, Rogers' Great Books Club meets approximately twice a month. This organization is not a true club for there are neither officers nor dues; rather it is a discussion group advised by Mr. Russell West to give interested students an insight into the great literary works of the world. Open to the upper three grades, the group is expected to read a designated volume before the meeting in order to discuss it intelligently and pass views on to one another. The two-hour discussion period is a time when students learn the real value of good literature and how it affects the modern world. Some of the books which have been discussed are Communist Manifesto, Plutarch's Lives, and the Declaration of Independence.

An international honorary society, Quill and Scroll is composed of high school students who have excelled in the field of school publications. After fulfilling certain requirements and obtaining the adviser's recommendation, members are formally initiated. Something a member of Rogers' Chapter never forgets is the added informal initiation which occurs during the previous week. A major project of the year is the sale of Christmas greetings in the Rampage. Proceeds help finance the annual spring banquet, a traditional chicken dinner at the Hostess House, Delta, Ohio.

PROJECTIONISTS

Rogers can well be proud of its group of fine projectionists. The size of the projection staff this year has increased to a total of twenty-one. Under the capable guidance of Mr. West, school librarian, members index all movies which come to the school, show them to the various classes, and prepare them for shipping if necessary. Participating in these activities, the students also gain good experience and knowledge of projection machines and film. Student projectionists devote much of their free time for the benefit of all students as well as being of service to the faculty. In addition to increasing interest in a subject, the educational movies which they show also help in giving the classes a better understanding of it.

LIBRARIANS

Mr. Russell West's student librarians, an ambitious group of 32 Rogerites, work diligently in the library every day before school and throughout the day during class periods and lunch hour. These students give up their spare time and study halls to assist in checking the books in and out, dusting and straightening the shelves, mending and repairing old books, processing books for circulation, typing cards and keeping the card catalogue up to date, stacking magazines, keeping the pamphlets and paperbacks in order, and seeing that the newspaper morgue is properly cared for. Mr. West and his aides traveled to Canton, Ohio, in the spring of the year to attend the Northwestern Ohio Student Librarians Association convention.

Students interested in aviation have the opportunity to discuss new aspects and to study man's attempts to fly, in the Aviation Club. Each year, one of the aims of the club is to sponsor a model airplane meet. A trip to the jet air base at Toledo Airport marks the major event of the year. Unlike most clubs at Rogers, the Aviation Club never worries about the condition of the treasury because there is none.

ARCHERY CLUB

On clear-weather days members of the Archery Club are to be seen outdoors practicing marksmanship. This club is open to anyone interested in archery and wanting to improve his skill. Purpose of this organization is to provide an opportunity for fun, relaxation, and development of accuracy in shooting. The activities this year were the periodic archery and scholastic competition shoots. Members also enjoy making their own equipment which is used in shooting. With the aid of its adviser, Mr. Lucas, the club is growing rapidly into a very successful organization.

beckon to these clubs ■■■

The aim of the Rogers Rifle Club is to instruct members in the fundamentals of safe shooting. Marksmanship, sportsmanship, leadership, and cooperation are also stressed. This year, the club enjoyed a large increase in membership which clearly shows the growing interest in the sport. Activities this year included a dance and a fudge sale. Safe Hunting Week, climaxed by a movie, was conducted in November. A team was entered in the City League matches, the Junior Indoor Sectionals, and the winter postal matches. Affiliated with the National Rifle Association, the organization was enrolled this year with the Director of Civilian Marksmanship; thus, the club is now eligible for governmental assistance. Its members qualify over the NRA junior course, and many will become Distinguished Riflemen.

TENNIS CLUB

The Tennis Club is a newly formed organization which aims at promoting the sport of tennis among the students of Rogers. Its money-raising projects included a roast and dance in the fall, a Fun Night in the winter, and a tennis assembly in May. Money raised from these activities helps pay for the tournaments in the summer.

ART CLUB

Art interests in the school and the community are furthered by the Art Club. Members' works put on display in the school building add to its appearance. Others gain appreciation of these projects, as well as the members themselves. Students also gain skill, knowledge, and culture through this group. Discussions on ceramics, commercial art, and oil paintings are included at the meetings. Among the club's activities were a coat checking service at the home basketball games, picnics, and splash parties.

Working on individual projects are Donna DeSalle, Doug Johnson, and Kenny Roe.

A toute vitesse! The members reaffirmed their efforts to speak French better and to learn more about the culture of France. All students of French are required to join, and former students continue as members. Spoken French prevailed at the meetings which helped constitute a varied program. A pantomime of Gigi and La Plume de Ma Tante began this year's activities. From December to February the meetings consisted of French carols, a comic skit, and a speaker from Belgium. The highlight of the year was the annual banquet at which occasion the president presented special awards. A bon voyage party concluded the French program. Alive and energetic, the members contributed to a very successful year.

LA TERTULIA

With the world getting smaller every day, the necessity for knowledge of a foreign language becomes more and more important. Through the Spanish Club, a precipitate of the Spanish classes, students try to learn the language and customs of the Spanish speaking lands. The language of club La Tertulia is not a foreign one to its adviser, Miss Marinosci. A native and a teacher of Argentina, she is in America as an exchange teacher. Miss Marinosci teaches Rogerites Spanish while she works at mastering the English language. A Christmas party, fudge sales, and participation in the Christmas decoration contest along with the annual banquet marked a large part of the year's activities. A project of the club which was open to the entire school was the program of Argentine dance lessons given by Miss Marinosci.

Ancient culture is reviewed and LATIN CLUB

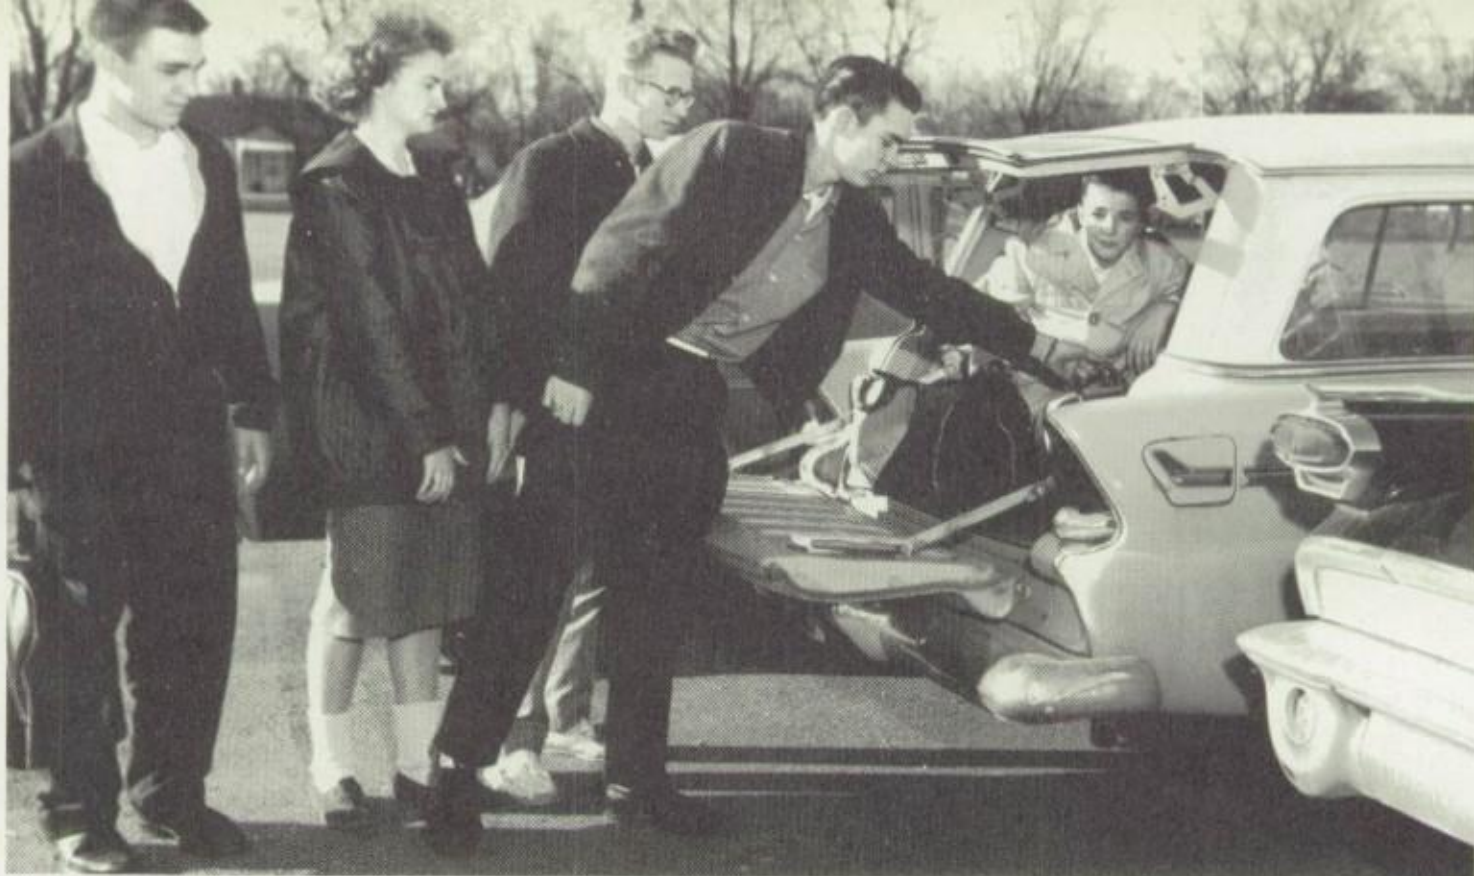

Anyone who is taking, or has taken Latin in the past, is automatically eligible to become a member of JCL. Through the study of Latin, one may broaden and strengthen his understanding of the English language, and be aided in many other high school and even college courses. The Latin student soon learns that this so-called "dead language" certainly does not live up to its nick-name. Ancient Roman civilization and its vast influence on modern culture is also covered. JCL attempts to go beyond what is taught in the classroom, and bring ancient events into modern times. Activities included the annual Saturnalia Festival in December and a guest day program in January, featuring the full-length movie, "Julius Caesar." During the Ides of March, Latin Week, the club has its slave auction and Roman banquet.

"Hark! who goes there?" quotes Jim Van Zee to some fellow Romans, Norm Koenigseker, Carl LaPlante, Dot Van Zee, and Audrey Tucker. Wearing the Latin togas which are seen every year at the Roman Banquet, these students are displaying Latin items which were very characteristic of ancient Rome. With these examples of Roman tools and clothes the students find it easier to understand the old Roman customs.

It's Monday night and the bowling club is ready to bowl, at least these students are. "Got my bag and bowling ball too," says Jerry Zeman as he throws his equipment into the back of the station wagon with little Bob Horn. Setting out for their "sentimental journey" to the bowling alley, Joe Dutched, Kathy Schikora, Marty Miller, Jerry Zeman, and Bob Horn are ready to go.

BOWLING CLUB

Once a week many of the students of Rogers gather at RCR Bowling Lanes to participate in the age-old game of ten pins, under the auspices of the Junior Bowling Congress, where students can learn the rules and regulations of bowling. Throughout the year there is great competition among the teams and individual bowlers for the trophies that are presented at the annual banquet towards the end of the school year. From the Coca-Cola Company this year, the club received bowling T-shirts and blouses that identified them as junior bowlers. The purpose of the Bowling Club is to promote sportsmanship and fair play among the bowlers. It is to this end that the club offers the opportunity for Rogerites to indulge in the enjoyable and recreational sport of bowling.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club is for those students who have an interest in the biological sciences. Members of the club profit by increased microscopic research and classification, labeling of various specimens which time does not allow for in regular classes, and in general an increase in science knowledge. Movies and several field trips constituted some of the year's activities in which the students eagerly participated. These trips were planned to acquaint the student with the many hidden secrets of Nature. Under the capable leadership of the club officers, the interest of each member was held throughout the year. Mr. Lucas, the advisor, helped in the majority of the planning so as to make the programs even more interesting. The purpose of the Biology Club is "to show its members that the science in life is in Biology."

Students interested in some phase of science make up the membership of the Science Club, whose purpose is to encourage the study of science and correlate the science classes of Rogers High School. The members held a science fair for the Rogers' PTO in February, and participated in the area science fair held in Bowling Green later in the year. The Science Club, a new organization, took the place of the Society for Scientific Advancement which "died out" after last year. The club planned several field trips, and men connected with various fields of science spoke to the group at their meetings. A trip to Chicago for the physics convention was the highlight of the year.

SCIENCE CLUB

"Amazing, isn't it?" relay Dick Barber, Carolyn Brimmer, and Russ Schwalbert as they appear very much intrigued in their study of physics.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The main aim of the FNA is to promote an interest in nursing among the girls who are entering this field and to help them grow as individuals by working together. The girls devote their spare time to this profession. Those who have passed the Red Cross First Aid Course wear uniforms while they are on duty in the school health room, one of their main responsibilities. Members strive for a better interest and an increase in knowledge of nursing. There are also many social activities in which the girls participate. Their year's events were highlighted by an annual Senior Tea, visits to various hospitals and institutions, and a program where an X-ray technician spoke. Students considering nursing as a career would be most likely to enjoy the club's activities.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS CLUB

The Future Homemakers endeavor to interest all high school girls in the values of training for their future families. In addition, the club acquaints its members with future opportunities in Home Economics for college graduates. This year the club sponsored a demonstration in, "Making Christmas Decorations for the Home," for all interested Rogerites. As its service project for the year, the Future Homemakers helped an area needy family have a merrier Christmas. In the spring, the club sponsored a departmental style show to round out its year of activity. Through this club, the girls of Rogers have come to a better understanding of what homemaking really means, and have learned many helpful ideas which will apply to their future lives.

Barbara Domanowski, Kathy Burgy, Kathy Justus, Mary Ann Urbanski, and Phyllis Bak are discussing plans for a future home-making program.

Deep interest in careers today

FBLA

Rogers' Future Business Leaders of America, a member of the national organization, helps give the business student a good, wide look into the world of commerce, and strives to better prepare him for a career in this vocation. Not only does the club promote a better and more thorough understanding of business, it also helps round out the student's personality through the various club activities and projects. These operations are in turn beneficial to the school as well as the student himself. This year FBLA purchased books relating to the subject of business and gave them to the library. Among the club's activities this year, were an after-game dance, a fudge sale, and the annual spring banquet.

Considering their future jobs, Cecilia Dumit, Mary Jane Hannan, and Pat Vollmar are checking the business career chart and reviewing some of the pamphlets on business.

Students interested in becoming teachers and rendering service to teachers and to the community, work as members of the Future Teachers of America. The members of this club explore the teaching field, including the opportunities and many areas of the teaching profession. The over-all plan is to have the members actually take over classes at Rogers and at the Adams Township elementary schools. Starting the second semester, the members who were interested in a certain field consulted teachers with the same interest and received many helpful hints and ideas. The freshmen graded papers, the sophomores observed classes, the juniors after observing a specific class in action, taught this class with the teacher present, and the seniors eventually took over a class by themselves.

Betty Draves, Janice Dressel, and Carla Barnes are enthusiastically discussing their future teaching plans with Miss Leonard.

Continually striving for better intonation and timing is the principal aim of each band member. This is true for every phase of the instrumental education offered at Rogers High School. The novices at playing an instrument are enrolled in the activities band. The string players, although few, make up the orchestra. This year sixty students constituted the varsity marching band. Immediately following marching season, the concert season begins with emphasis placed on classical music. The musicians don't confine their talents to Rogers alone, for they go to other parts of the state to display their skill. The better members prepare solos and form ensembles to participate in contests. The district contest is held at Bowling Green State University where ratings from I, outstanding, to IV, poor, are awarded. Those fortunate enough to receive a I rating go to the state to compete with the tops in the state. The band contests are held much in the same manner. The band prepares the contest numbers and then participates in the district. Those with I ratings compete in the state, striving always for the coveted I rating in the state contest. Many other band activities include football half time programs, pep rallies, basketball games, concerts, and graduation exercises.

It is the goal of the Rogers a cappella choir to develop fine choral work that will be an inspiration to both choir members and the community. Any student who can sing on key is welcome to join the group and learn the folk songs of America and other countries.

Participating in the Ohio choral contest, entertaining numerous school groups, and singing at the baccalaureate and commencement exercises are among its activities. The chorus' extra-curricular activities consisted of sponsoring an after-game dance, Christmas party and dance, and a roast which is held at the end of the year.

THAT

WONDERFUL YEAR . . . 1960

THE MAINSTAY OF EVERY BUSINESS IS ADVERTISING. THROUGH THIS MEDIUM THE PURPOSES, FUNCTIONS, AND BENEFITS OF BUSINESS ARE PASSED ON TO THE CONSUMER. ADVERTISING ATTRACTS ATTENTION, CREATES DESIRE, AROUSES INTEREST, AND IMPELS ACTION. THAT THIS BOOK IS A REALITY IS DUE TO A GREAT DEGREE TO ITS ADVERTISERS' PATRONAGE.

ADVERTISING IS THE LIFE OF TRADE
AND THE ESSENCE OF PUBLIC CON-TACT.
